

2017학년도 전기 편입생 영어시험 문제지

(고사시간 : 11:00~12:00)

수험번호		지원 학부(과)		지원 학년		성 명
------	--	----------	--	-------	--	-----	--

Learning another language is easier when we are young, because at this age our brains respond to every new (A)stimulus. Some children even pick up two languages at once. But it becomes harder (B)___ age, and many adults find it is almost impossible (unless they live for a while in a country where the language is spoken). Some people do better than others, possibly (C)___ the language-processing areas of their brains are bigger.

1. (A)stimulus means closest to:

① dedication ② impulse
③ sacrifice ④ meditation

2. The best answer for (B) and (C), respectively, is:

① at - because ② at - although
③ with - although ④ with - because

3. According to the above passage, __

① aged adults should not learn a foreign language.
② the earlier you learn a foreign language, the better.
③ if you want to learn a foreign language, you should live in a country where the language is spoken.
④ we need bigger brains to learn a foreign language.

The woman at the center of President Park Geun-hye's worst leadership crisis was jailed on Tuesday. Choi Soon-sil, a friend of Ms. Park's and her secret adviser, was accused of (A)___ her influence to extort $69 million from big businesses in the form of donations to two foundations she controlled. Ms. Choi tearfully presented herself to prosecutors. They questioned and decided to urgently (B)detain Ms. Choi and lock her away in custody. Such measures mean they believe there is enough evidence for criminal charges.

4. The best answer for (A)___ is:

① taking advantage of ② being exploited by
③ putting up with ④ keeping in touch with

5. Which is NOT mentioned or implied?

① Choi Soon-sil contributed $69 million to two foundations she controlled.
② Choi Soon-sil went to jail after she surrendered to prosecutors.
③ Prosecutors seem to believe that they have enough proof for Choi Soon-sil's criminal charges.
④ Choi Soon-sil is the key figure in President Park Geun-hye's worst leadership crisis.

6. (B)detain means closest to:

① presume ② confine
③ torment ④ satisfy

Bob Dylan said he would not attend the Nobel Prize ceremonies because of "pre-existing commitments." In October, Mr. Dylan was (A)named as the recipient of the 2016 Nobel Prize in Literature "for (B)having created new poetic expressions within the great American song tradition." Mr. Dylan's win divided the literary and music worlds. Some (C)questioned whether a musician should receive one of literature's highest honors. For his part, Mr. Dylan remained (D)silently for two weeks after the announcement. Finally, the Nobel Academy announced that Mr. Dylan would not be (E)attending the ceremony.

7. Bob Dylan said he would not attend the Nobel Prize ceremonies because __ ① he had other promises to keep.

② he was not committed to the Nobel Prize.
③ a musician should not receive one of literature's highest honors.
④ the music and literary worlds were divided.

2017학년도 전기 편입생 영어시험 문제지

(고사시간 : 11:00~12:00)

수험번호	지원 학부(과)	지원 학년	성 명
8. (A)named means closest to: ① appreciated ② refuted ③ declined ④ confirmed 9. An ungrammatical expression is: ① (B) ② (C) ③ (D) ④ (E)  These days, even 3-year-olds wear headphones, and many brands claim to be “safe for young ears.” But a new study has found that half of children’s headphones tested did not restrict volume as promised. The worst produced sound so loud (A)___ it could be hazardous to ears in minutes. Half of 8- to 12-year-olds listen to music daily, and nearly two-thirds of teenagers do. Safe listening depends on both volume and duration: the louder the sound, the (B)___ time you should listen to it. Even with headphones that effectively limit maximum sound, supervision is (C)crucial. If a parent is an arm’s length away, a child (D)___ headphones should still be able to hear a question when asked. If the child can’t hear the question, the noise is unsafe.  10. The best answer for (A), (B) and (D), respectively, is: ① that - little - wore ② that - less - wearing ③ which - little - wearing ④ which - less - wore 11. Based on the information in the passage, ____ ① all the brands that claim to be safe for young ears did not restrict volume as promised. ② more teenagers listen to music daily than 8- to 12-year-olds. ③ parents should be able to speak as loud as their children can hear. ④ depending on both sound and duration, your children need headphones that effectively limit maximum sound.		12. The best title for the passage would be: ① The Danger of Loud Noise ② Volume-limiting Technology ③ Children Need Music ④ Safe Listening 13. The word with OPPOSITE meaning to (C)crucial is: ① important ② decisive ③ petty ④ critical  A time-lapse video of smog rolling into Beijing offers a harsh perspective of the (A)___ afflicting the Chinese capital in recent months. The video shows toxic smog descending on buildings, with nearby structures becoming almost (B)unrecognizable. While China has taken steps to reduce the burning of fossil fuels, Beijing’s weather patterns, vehicle exhaust and geographical position near mountains that trap emissions make progress (C)___.  14. The best answer for (A) is: ① transportation ② pollution ③ capitalism ④ development 15. (B)unrecognizable means closest to: ① obscured ② forgotten ③ barren ④ discolored 16. The best answer for (C) is: ① tough ② simple ③ convenient ④ disgusting  Stuck at your desk? A study found that frequent, brief walking breaks were more effective in improving well-being than a single, longer walk. There is growing evidence that long bouts of uninterrupted sitting can have undesirable physical and emotional consequences. Those who sit more than eight or nine hours daily, which for many of us describes a typical workday, are at heightened risk for diabetes, depression and obesity compared with (A)those who move more often.

2017학년도 전기 편입생 영어시험 문제지

(고사시간 : 11:00~12:00)

수험번호	지원 학부(과)	지원 학년	성 명
17. (A)those refers to: ① consequences ② people ③ hours ④ bouts 18. The passage is mostly about ____ ① walking and health. ② ideal work contracts. ③ medical discovery. ④ well-being at work.  “Having a great time now?” she inquired. “Much better.” I turned again to my new (★)acquaintance. (A) “I thought you knew. I’m afraid I’m not a very good host.” (B) “I’m Gatsby,” he said suddenly. (C) “This is an unusual party for me. I haven’t even seen the host. This man Gatsby sent over his chauffeur with an invitation.” (D) “What!” I exclaimed. “Oh, I beg your pardon.” (E) For a moment he looked at me as if he failed to understand. (F) He smiled understandingly—much more than understandingly.  19. The correct order to make the most logical paragraph would be: ① B - A - E - C - F - D ② E - C - F - D - A - B ③ C - E - B - D - A - F ④ F - B - D - C - A - E 20. (★)acquaintance means closest to: ① stranger ② associate ③ sweetheart ④ host		 In North Korea, possessing unauthorized foreign information and media is a crime. Punishments range from hard labor in a political prison camp (A)____ the death penalty. Yet ordinary North Koreans consume foreign media (B)____ a rapid pace. A 24-year-old defector from the North, who described herself (C)____ a foreign movie fanatic, said textbooks taught that South Koreans were naked and starving because they were so poor. But South Korean movies showed her the falsehoods of her teachers. Defector interviews and research about the North reveal a country undergoing social and political change. More North Koreans engage in illegal social activities and behavior, including mimicking Seoul-style ways of speaking and dressing to imitate South Korean celebrities. Political perceptions and attitudes toward the leadership also appear to be shifting. Dissatisfaction with the political system and distrust in the government seem on the rise.  21. What is the most likely conclusion of the passage? ① We should sponsor information campaigns to sustain pressure for change within North Korea. ② We should be careful to prevent North Koreans from receiving hard labor or the death penalty. ③ We should use our media to teach North Korean defectors unbiased political perceptions. ④ We should demand that North Korea stop viewing the possession of foreign information as a crime. 22. The best answer for (A), (B) and (C), respectively, is: ① for - to - with ② to - at - as ③ for - at - as ④ to - at - with 23. Which is NOT mentioned or implied in the passage? ① Mimicking Seoul-style ways of speaking is illegal in North Korea. ② More and more North Koreans are becoming skeptical about their government. ③ North Korea is undergoing a rapid change in political perceptions and attitudes toward its leadership. ④ North Koreans watch South Korean movies and learn that South Koreans are so poor.

2017학년도 전기 편입생 영어시험 문제지

(고사시간 : 11:00~12:00)

수험번호	지원학부(과)	지원학년	성명
The wind came whooping out of the eastern darkness, driving dust before it. In minutes, Edward Anglesey was blinded. He crawled on all fours into the broken bits which were soil, hunched down and groped for his little device. The wind was an (A)idiot bassoon in his skull. Something whipped across his back, (B)drawing blood, a tree ripped up by the roots and shot a hundred miles. Lightning cracked, immensely far overhead where clouds boiled with night. 24. What kind of writing is this passage most likely? ① Drama ② Guidebook ③ Poetry ④ Fiction 25. (A)idiot bassoon means closest to: ① terrible music ② mental problems ③ natural noise ④ foolish nature 26. (B)drawing blood means closest to: ① some horrible art ② damaged tree roots ③ whatever hit him ④ whatever he hit Seeing David asleep alongside the spring, one said to his companion: (A) "But what if he wakes up?" said the first. (B) "Look, do you see that package under his head?" (C) "This will take care of him," he said. (D) "Yes, perhaps he has a pocketbook or some money hidden inside of it," said the other. "Or perhaps he has some money in one of his pockets." (E) His companion pulled out a long knife from his belt and pointed it at David. 27. The correct order to make the most logical paragraph would be: ① E - B - A - D - C ② B - C - D - A - E ③ B - E - C - A - D ④ B - D - A - E - C		The Ministry of Plenty's forecast had estimated the output of boots at a hundred and forty-five million pairs. The actual output was given as sixty-two million. Winston, however, in rewriting the forecast, marked the figure down to fifty-seven million, so as to allow for the usual claim that the quota had been overfilled. In any case, sixty-two million was no nearer the truth than fifty-seven million, or than a hundred and forty-five million. Very likely no boots had been produced at all. Likelier still, nobody knew how many had been produced, much less cared. All one knew was that, year after year, (A)astronomical numbers of boots were produced on paper, while perhaps half the population of Oceania went barefoot. 28. Why did the numbers of pairs of boots change so much? ① Mistakes ② Fantasies ③ Falsehoods ④ Production 29. Winston wanted to give the impression of ____ ① progress made. ② variety offered. ③ failed goals. ④ numbers cut. 30. (A)astronomical means closest to: ① microscopic ② fantastic ③ gigantic ④ unbelievable The blood of our comrades mingled with our sweat and soaked into our clothes. We left, stunned by exhaustion and despair. We threw our last remaining energy into each retreat, not in the hope of saving our lives, but with the (A)feverish desire to participate in the next day's battle. We wanted to live so that we might again fire on the enemy, watch the bodies fall and blood pour out . . . to pay them back.

2017학년도 전기 편입생 영어시험 문제지

(고사시간 : 11:00~12:00)

수험번호	지원학부(과)	지원학년	성명
31. The writer wanted most to ____ ① end the struggle. ② get revenge. ③ survive fighting. ④ do his duty. 32. (A)feverish means closest to: ① committed ② sickly ③ intense ④ dying 33. This passage is mostly about ____ ① crime. ② combat. ③ survival. ④ adventure.  You can be doing your job (A)extraordinarily well, but if what you are working on does not matter to your boss, you will actually be sabotaging your career. However, if you do the one or two things that are most (B)____ to your boss, those actions that generate the highest levels of “customer satisfaction” in his eyes, this alone can advance your career faster than anything else you could do.  34. (A)extraordinarily means closest to: ① mostly ② hardly ③ greatly ④ seemingly 35. The best answer for (B)____ is: ① acceptable ② disgusting ③ visible ④ important 36. The writer advises us to ____ ① work toward our goals. ② maximize customer satisfaction. ③ meet our supervisor’s needs. ④ sabotage our boss’s career.		 It rained for a day and a night and for half the next day, and when the sun came out it rained again, upward; it rained light from the heavy (A)jewels which lay on the rich new green. Some jewels shrank and some fell, and then the earth in a voice of softness, and leaves in a voice of texture, and flowers speaking in color, were grateful.  37. This passage is mostly about ____ ① biology. ② mythology. ③ geography. ④ meteorology. 38. (A)jewels means closest to: ① wealth ② stones ③ rain ④ flowers  We normally think that we have five senses: sight, hearing, taste, smell, and touch. But we also feel things that do not seem related to a particular sense. They are like an awareness of your body. Most of these sensations affect your (A)unconscious mind, but that doesn’t make them unimportant. Without your sense of balance, for example, you could not stand upright.  39. (A)unconscious means closest to: ① unintentional ② unmentioned ③ unthoughtful ④ unnoticed 40. The writer suggests that ____ ① we feel what we cannot sense. ② we sense what we cannot feel. ③ we have a sixth sense. ④ we really have just five senses.	