9. About Apostille

1. What is the "Apostille Convention"?

Apostille Convention is the legalization convention abolishing the requirement of legalization for foreign public documents to facilitate the certification of public documents among Convention parties. A document bearing an apostille does not require any further legalization by the embassy or consulate of the country in which it is to be used.

2. How to obtain an Apostille Certificate

A. First, issue necessary certificates such as a school diploma or an official transcript from the school student was enrolled in.

B. Secondly, require a governmental agency designated by the school to issue an Apostille certificate for previously issued documents.

※ An agency which is eligible to issue an Apostille certificate is limited to the public organization that is designated by the country where the original document is issued.

※ When the original document is not from the Convention parties, please submit "Certificate of foreign schools" by the Korean Consulate in the country where the school is, or "Certificate of school education" by the diplomatic or consulate offices in the county where the school is.

C. When submitting the application, please provide all required certificates issued by overseas schools and apostille certificates (or Certificate of foreign schools or Certificate of school education).

D. Documents available for obtaining an Apostille Certificate

- Official documents and certificates that are issued by public schools.

- Official documents and certificates of public schools that are notarized by a notary's office in the country where the school is.

※ Official documents and certificates must be notarized in Korean before they can be used for obtaining Apostille certificates.

3. Notes

※ For more information on Apostille Convention, please visit www.0404.go.kr, homepage of Safe travelling abroad of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade, OR contact Apostille Service hot-line at 02-2100-7500 or call Consulate Call Center at 02-3210-0404.
